COLLEGIATE HIGH SCHOOL.

COLUMBUS, MISSISSIPPI.

Rev. JOHN T. FREEMAN, PRINCIPAL,

Mr. THOMAS B. BAILEY, ASSISTANT.

THE exercises of this Institution will be commenced on Monday, the 20th inst.

In again presenting this Institution for the patronage and support of the public, the Trustees are gratified that they can so confidently commend its claims to every Parent and Guardian who wishes to secure a valuable and finished education for young men.

The skill and ability of those who have been engaged to conduct this school, are beyond all question.

All the higher branches of learning will be taught as will prepare students to enter any of the Colleges of the United States well advanced, or to enter at once upon the duties of life.

The Trustees design attaching a Military Department to the school, should a sufficient inducement be offered to justify them in employing a competent teacher for that department.

The Institution has a valuable Library of one thousand volumes, which it is designed to increase.

There will be two sessions a year of twenty-one weeks each.

Board can be obtained at reasonable rates for all students for a distance.

The rates of tuition per session are as follows, to be paid one half in advance:

For the Elementary English Studies. $15.00

For Grammar, Geography, Arithmetic, Philosophy, &c. $20.00

For Mathematics and kindred studies, together with the Languages, Latin, Greek, &c. &c. $25.00

For Engineering and Military Tactics. $10.00
